Welcome to the world of Archipelago Botanicals – where natural soy candles, natural fragrance, exquisite bath and body products, and scented diffusers make a home a home. Archipelago creates products that nourish us, that help us enjoy, relax and take a break from our busy schedules. But that’s only part of the story. Our gentle and natural based bath and skin care formulations are loaded with pomegranates and other powerful antioxidants to help keep skin looking young, healthy and vibrant. Light one of Archipelago's scented soy candles, draw a hot bath, and prepare to be pampered.
